

Unimas staff sign letters of pledge

COMMITMENT ... Deputy vice-chancellor (development) Professor Khairuddin Abdul Hamid hands over his letter of pledge to Yusuf while Bujang looks on. PHOTOGRAPH: NATHAN ACHUK

KOTA SAMARAHAN - Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) deans and directors of faculties, centres and institutes signed their letters of pledge yesterday in the presence of vice-chancellor Professor Yusuf Hadi.

The ceremony was witnessed by chairman of Unimas board of directors, Tan Sri Datuk Amar Haji Bujang Mohd Nor. Yusuf urged the university's top management to keep up the good work, continue to work as a team for the development of the university, and serve as role models for junior staff to emulate.

"To achieve the university's vision and our target for this year, the staff need to work together as a dedicated, efficient and effective team."

He said the letter of pledge was to remind the staff of their responsibilities and duties.